

Job Description Software Tester

Mandatory Skills:

- -3+ years in software application testing
- Background/understanding of software development life cycle
- Demonstrated experience UNIX/LINUX Commands.
- CSTE Exam certification an asset
- ETL Data processing Test experience

Job Description:

- assist with ongoing project initiatives
- Responsible for developing test plans and test cases and execution of those plans against client based consumer security technologies
- The successful candidates will assist with resolving important testing related issues.
- You will be involved in all phases of testing- test planning, execution, troubleshooting, and reporting.
- Execute test cases
- Investigate potential defects and discussed them with developers
- Log defects during the test execution phase
- Report test results to the project manager
- Organize and facilitate reviews, inspections, and walkthroughs of test plans and other Product Lifecycle Framework (PLF) related documentation.
- Create the functional decomposition of applications as part of feature testing
- Develop test coverage matrices to maximize testing efficiency.
- Use optimization techniques to minimize the number of test cases and time effort while maximizing test coverage.
- Act as a technical expert in at least one area of system testing on assigned projects.
- Isolate root cause of defects and drive the resolution of important defects.
- Create QA status report for assigned projects as required.
- Participate in business requirements review sessions with the peers and business users
- Organize and participate in test plans walkthroughs
- Test the application in functional and system integration testing
- Write traceability matrix to reflect test coverage
- Prioritize test requirements and organized test cases accordingly
- Act as subject expert matter in the functionality assigned for the project

Applicant must be SA citizens